

GUEST CHOREOGRAPHER / JOSH ASSOR

Josh is a New York based award winning choreographer and performer. Throughout Josh's career, he has worked some of the most respected jobs including Broadway, National Tours, National Commercials, Film and Television. He recently choreographed the KANIA luxury athletic wear debut show at New York Fashion Weekend. Other previous credits include Disney's 1st National Tour of Newsies (asst. Dance Captain), Neleus in Mary Poppins on Broadway and the 1st National Tour, Baby John In West Side story (Stratford Festival), Wizard Of Oz National Tour (Troika), and dancing on NBC's Saturday Night Live with Jimmy Fallon. He has worked regionally in productions such as The Little Mermaid, Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat, Peter Pan, Beauty and the Beast and Aida the Opera. Josh has been featured in Dance Canada Quarterly, Industry Dance Magazine and Dance Plug (Los Angeles). He has taught at Edge Performing Arts Center and is currently on faculty at the Broadway Dance Center in New York City.