

Ivana Ho graduated from The National Ballet School of Prague, Czech Republic before embarking on her career with many ballet companies throughout Europe and Canada including Ontario Ballet Theatre, Ballet BC and Ballet Victoria.

Ivana is also an accomplished choreographer creating dance works for films, musicals and dance schools around Vancouver and Vancouver Island.

Over the years Ivana developed unique approach to her students stemming from strict years in the post-communist Czech Republic and from years of extensive performing and teaching in Canada. She always tries to find ways to bring out individual's strengths in class and on stage. Ivana lives on Vancouver Island with her young family.