

JAZZ

DANIELLA ROUSAL

Daniella has been a professional dancer, choreographer, producer, educator for over 20 years. Her dance styles include: Jazz, Tap, Ballet, Contemporary, Musical Theatre, Ballroom and Latin.

She is an accredited teacher by major dance associations both in Canada and the United States and is also an accredited adjudicator through the Professional Adjudicators Alliance.

Daniella adjudicates extensively throughout Canada for a variety of competitive events.

She was the Artistic Director of a successful dance academy with many of her students having gone on to work in New York City, on Broadway in principal roles, with the Radio City Rockettes, on various cruise lines, in independent professional production companies, professional performances throughout Canada, the United States and Europe as well as acceptance to the American Musical and Dramatic Academy (AMDA). Many have also become very successful studio owners, teachers and choreographers.

Daniella has achieved international acclaim for her entertaining and stylized choreography. She has also produced, directed, staged and choreographed many large productions.

Having performed in many professional stage and theatrical venues, Daniella also held International style Ballroom (Standard and Latin) 10-dance championship titles in Canada plus a top ranking in the World Championships held in Blackpool, England.

With a background of tremendous achievement and experience, Daniella is an inspiring performer, instructor, choreographer and adjudicator.