

LAURA ROSS

MUSICAL THEATRE & OPEN ADJUDICATOR

Laura is a professional musical theatre performer who started her ballet training at age 6 in Victoria, BC. In high school, her mother took her to see touring productions of Chicago and Ragtime in Vancouver. Laura knew she wanted to make Musical Theatre her passion after those two beautiful productions.

She received her post-secondary musical theatre training from The Canadian College of Performing Arts. Her career has graced many stages across North America. Highlights include: Anything Goes (RCMT), Drowsy Chaperone (Prairie Skies Ent), Crazy For You (Gateway Theatre), Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat (Chemainus Theatre), Hello, Dolly! (The Vancouver Playhouse) and The

Backyardigans National Tour (KOBAs Family Entertainment). Laura teaches Ballet, Jazz, Tap and Musical Theatre all around the Greater Vancouver Area. Learn more at laura-ross.com

Note from Laura- As an educator, I make it my goal to teach excellent technique and professionalism. As an equal priority, I aim to equip my students with the tools to maintain a healthy self-esteem and keep motivated towards their goals. I also encourage students to keep growing, and learning from the artists around them, and at the same time inspiring them to take personal ownership of their craft.
